

Bad Faith and Coverage Litigation

The Bad Faith and Coverage Group defends bad faith suits and initiates declaratory judgment to obtain coverage rulings, protecting clients from bad faith allegations or attacks. They defend numerous bad faith actions against major national and regional insurance companies involving claims arising from health, life, property, casualty, general and professional liability policies. They represent insurers seeking declaratory judgments in the courts of Georgia and elsewhere. They also provide counsel to insurance companies in assessing and making decisions about when and whether to defend under reservation of rights, decline coverage, rescind policies, and seek declaratory judgment. Insurers to whom we have provided this type of representation include Hartford, Travelers, Admiral Insurance Company, One Beacon, ACE, INA, Minnesota Lawyers Mutual/Prolegia, Lexington, and Westport.

ATTORNEYS

Frank C. Bedinger, III
L. Kristin Brock
Alan F. Herman
Kim M. Jackson
Peter A. Jacxsens, Jr.
Martin A. Levinson
William H. Major, III
Christine L. Mast
Matthew G. McLaughlin
Daniel N. Mills
Brian W. Sprinkle
Kathryn S. Whitlock
Peter R. York