

Legal Malpractice

The Legal Malpractice Group defends attorneys against all varieties of malpractice allegations, including multi-million dollar class-action securities claims, divorce and child custody disputes, business and real estate transactions, wrongful foreclosures, products liability cases, estate planning and will contests, criminal defense, bankruptcy, civil rights, conspiracy and general civil litigation. They have also assisted clients formally and informally in responding to bar grievances at all levels and frequently counsel law firms and lawyers on professional ethics and liability issues and sanctions. In addition, lawyers have turned to our Firm to negotiate partnership dissolutions and withdrawals.
