

HPTY Wins Summary Judgment in Breach of Fiduciary Duties Case

July 9, 2010

Georgia Superior Court for Fulton County

Lane Young, Elizabeth O'Neill, and Rob Gilbreath obtained summary judgment for the defendants in a breach of fiduciary duties case pending in the Georgia Superior Court for Fulton County. The plaintiff sought recovery of over $4,000,000, alleging that his former attorneys breached duties owed him by purportedly undermining his right to assert a bad faith claim against a liability insurer. The trial court ruled that there was no evidence that the defendants' alleged conduct caused the plaintiff any damages.

ATTORNEYS

Robert Gilbreath

M. Elizabeth O'Neill

H. Lane Young, II

PRACTICE AREAS

Business Litigation