With the fast-paced and prolific litigation developing in California, the Los Angeles office is a growing and vital part of HPTY. The Los Angeles office opened in 2008 to best serve HPTY's client base in cases filed against them on the West Coast. Strategically located within walking distance to the courthouse, the Los Angeles office is staffed by a seasoned team of trial lawyers and support personnel who handle business disputes, labor and employment, toxic tort, products liability and other complex commercial litigation. In the short time period since opening in Los Angeles, HPTY lawyers have tried nearly 20 serious cases in California courts. The firm enjoys an outstanding reputation throughout California as aggressive, creative and accomplished advocates. In each case, HPTY uses its vast volume of experience to tailor and execute the best defense for each client.
